Your Excellency:

In accord with your remarks in Kyiv on March 8, 2023, that the United Nations “will continue to seek solutions and a just peace for the people of Ukraine, and the world,” I hope you will consider the attached article as a proposal in furtherance of that objective.

I am a mediator and arbitrator with years of successful experience, and this is how I would propose to settle the current conflict if asked.

I realize it may seem quixotic for a lone voice to make such an attempt. But perhaps it could be from such flapping of butterfly wings that an ultimate wind of peace might blow.

I wish you all the best in your efforts to restore sanity in Europe and an end to this barbaric war.

Sincerely,

Larry G. Johnson
