

Dear Nancy

Now what do you think.
yesterday I was out
playing in the back yard, the sun was shining and it was so nice and warm, and the first thing I knew there comes the cutest little rabbit hopping
out of the rosebushes,
and he was so different.
most rabbits are grey,
or have blue or brown
and white spots on them, but this rabbit was white and clean, and his eyes and ears were pink. he came right close to me and said

I am an Easter rabbit and I am very busy now making Easter baskets to give to good little girls and boys on Easter morning.
You know I have a lot of fun hiding the baskets so the boys and girls have to look for them.
Some times the girls and boys, mamas and Papas have to help them find the baskets. I asked the Easter rabbit what he put in the Easter baskets and he said he put Easter candy eggs and chocolate Easter bunnies and sometimes a little present, if the boys and girls were real good. The rabbit acted like he was a little afraid, and I asked him, little rabbit are you afraid? and he said I am a little bit, you know a long long time ago I came to this house to leave baskets for two nice little girls name Vivian and Helen, and thier Daddy pretty near caught me, I guess I was not very quiet when I hid the baskets, and he got up and hollered Oh; look the pretty rabbit, and then he started after me, but I ran under a chair and then he fell over the chair and bumped his head against the table awful hard, and when he got up he couldn't tell which way he was looking, so I hopped right out so he couldn't catch me. That learned me a lesson, I am very quiet and careful so I don't wake up any body when I leave the baskets now,

I told Oscar about the Easter rabbit and he said that little pink eared rascal I will catch him some nice Easter morning when he isn't looking, but I bet Oscar will never catch that Easter rabbit. Now what do you think?

Oscar says he is coming to your house for Easter and he is going to bite the ears off your Easter bunnies when he gets hold of them. But maybe he is only fooling. Lots of love and  Neoyua.
