Rate High Merit Scores

Second group, selected on a merit basis, have received letters of commendation for their superior performances on the qualifying test.

This group and the semi-finalists group together constitute more than three per cent of all school seniors. They are a distinguished group. Each of them will receive a letter of commendation on Commencement.

Members are John Beardsley, John Coleman, Camille Jan, Bonnie Jones, Risa Kahn, John Saloway, Ronnie Sigal, Stenberg, and John Tollef-

Honor Society Elects Officers

Charter members of the Southwest branch of the National Honor Society elected officers for the present year.

Bara Orfield, 12, is the new president; John McKeand, 12, vice president; Nancy Kapp, 12, secretary; Jane Reichmann, 11, treasurer.

According to the National Honor Society regulations, membership in the Southwest society was decided by a vote of all senior school teachers and administrators.

Down Hoe Down

Seventh graders turned out in numbers to form squares for the lay-down Hoe-down Barn Friday night in the gym. John Ohnstein was the caller. Irving Hork was in charge of the dance. Dancers paid 20¢ admission.

SW Presents Concert For Corky Roehl

Corky Roehl, a member of the North high football team who suffered a bruised spinal column in a football game at Southwest on October 16, is the motive behind the Corky Concert to be presented by the Southwest choir and Southwest band tomorrow evening at 8 p.m. All proceeds go to the Corky Roehl Trust fund. Each student was given one ticket to sell, and more are available at $1 each.

Student councils are in charge of promotion and ticket sales.

Renslow Elected Junior President

Phil Renslow has been elected to head the junior class. John Thiel is the new vice president; Cheeta Adams, secretary; and Mickey Fewer, treasurer.

Officers head the class council in planning the year's activities. A class party (a mardi gras) and the junior class auditorium program are in the planning stage. Later in the year the council will make arrangements for the Junior-Senior prom and commencement.

Six AFS Semi-finalists Named

Six of Southwest's junior class have been chosen as American Field Service finalists. After elimination, screening, and many days of anxiety for the 12 semi-finalists, these applicants have been chosen.

Helena Hale has applied for the school program, southern hemisphere. Helena moved from Marshall to Southwest this year and belongs to the girl's swimming team, the Twin City Philharmonic society, and is active in girl scouting.

Larry Johnson also chose the school program but the northern hemisphere. Larry is a member of the German club, the Honor society, and student council. He is also a co-chairman of the ethics committee.

Jane Reichmann prefers participation in the summer program. Jane belongs to the choir, German club, Honor society, junior class council, annual staff, and is ICC representative for Blue Tri.

Tory Black also wishes to be accepted for the summer program. Tory is active in a junior club, the German club, annual staff, girl's swimming, Honor society, and choir.

Bruce Norback has made application for the summer program. Bruce is in the band, Latin club, Honor society, junior class council and golf team.

Joan Blumenson has made no preference and is competing for both school and summer program. Joan is a member of a junior club, French club, and Honor society.

These students have been chosen by several committees of parents, teachers, and students. Notifications of selections will be earlier next year and the candidates will be chosen by January or February.

SW Goes On The Air

"Should math and science be compulsory in our high school?" This is the topic of discussion for the WLWL series "Speaking on Education" Sunday, November 29 at 7:30 p.m.

Participating in the program will be Pat Nolan, 12, Ronnie Sigal, 12, Mr. Pearson, chemistry instructor, and Mr. Classon, principal. The basis for the discussion is that in 1963 one year of science and math will be required for graduation. The choir will also sing on the program moderated by Bob Hendries.

Ingeborg

Ingeborg Wins Essay Contest

Ingeborg Cremer, German student, won first place in Southwest's "Voice of Democracy essay contest." She was chosen from 127 seniors who participated in Mrs. Boylan's senior English classes.

The winners in the essay contest were judged on composition, delivery, and originality. Ingeborg will now be competing with students everywhere to be the national winner. She may receive as much as $1,500 for her efforts.

Candy Canes There'll Be On the Xmas Formal Tree

"Candy Canes" will be the theme of this year's Christmas dance. Since this is the first formal held at Southwest in many years, the junior girls and Sue Noble, dance chairman, are already at work on preparations. The date is December 18, so you boys better get on the stick and get yourself a date — before it's too late.
