Cat

by Sue Jones

I'd call this book
"Sessions", but I think the name is taken. I've talked to my therapist about so much in my life. More than a minister, a teacher... even mother, sister or brother have I told my therapist everything.

Please do never feel threatened by such patient ears. But a cat will do! Dogs want to play, walk, or be cleaned up after.

Cats will listen if you feed them and change their litter box.
I dedicate this book to all the therapists who gave me an hour of their time.

Mom keeps saying She wanted Six children... She only had 5.
Maybe that's why I have 2 personalities... to be the child she never had.

I don't have to do 50 years of this anymore.
So what I figure now that I got a terminal disease is that I don't have to attempt suicides anymore and I'm a lot happier.

My sister saw
a psychiatrist.
Her problem was it bothered her she was the only normal one in the family.

Seriously, is it that bad I have no trouble giving up men but cigarettes is a must have?
Nothing like a good Smoke and the remote!

Why were all the guys nice only when I was married?

I've worked AT Raising my self-esteem. Now all my friends are drunks, unemployed, homeless, or pathetic. It makes me look so good.

I hate doing the dishes, laundry, or picking up socks. Is that why I'm afraid of romance?

One man dumped
me. I got a cat.
Another one dumped
me. I got a dog.
I'm finally happy.

Men are from baseball because they are always trying to make it to first base. Women are from "Stars on Ice" because they keep going around in circles.

My idea of a perfect date
